Save the Date to Enjoy the Highlights of Harvest Season at Buy Haywood’s “Uniquely Local Food Crawl”

The only thing better than reaping the tasty rewards of another bountiful harvest season in the Great Smoky Mountains is sharing every delicious bite with our visitors and locals alike. Buy Haywood is proud to announce it’s “Uniquely Local Food Crawl” as the premier culinary event of the summer season and will take place August 21-24 & August 28-31, 2014. Participating “Farm to Table” partners will create specialty menu items featuring fresh “Farm to Table” flavors—from innovative small plates to home grown libations. Over the two weekends, the event will crisscross Haywood County, North Carolina, highlighting the rich farming and agricultural heritage of the community while offering a variety of epicurean adventures. Visitors will find that Haywood County is a vibrant and diverse destination for foodies of all ages—well worth a gold star on the regional gastronomy map!

A full listing of participants and flavors will be featured on Buy Haywood’s website at www.buyhaywood.com/uniquely-local-food-crawl.

While you are in town, be sure to pick up a copy of Buy Haywood's Find your Adventure! 2014 Agritourism Guide to visit: Farmer & Tailgate Markets • Award Winning "Farm to Table" Restaurants • Uniquely Local Jams, Jellies, Savory Spreads & Artisan Pickles • Specialty Retail Shops • Rustic Hospitality Venues • Heritage Festivals • U Pick Farms • Historic Preservation Sites • Educational Opportunities for all Ages • 2014 Calendar of farm-related events and activities!
